The information and feedback from community members participating in these meetings will help the City update its Development Code, Design Standards, Housing Element, and new Housing and Neighborhood Action Plans.

New updates have been made to the Shape Stockton website, including information and tools related to the Housing Land Inventory, Community Plans, a General Plan compliance analysis, a summary of public outreach responses received in 2022, and completed studies and drafts prepared.

A Spanish-language interpreter will be available at the Workshops. If information is needed in languages other than English and Spanish or in an alternative format, please call (209) 937-7220 at least five days in advance. Advance notification will enable the City to make reasonable arrangements and to ensure accessibility.

Future workshops will focus on the Cabral, South Airport, and Manila/Gleason neighborhoods. Sign up for Shape Stockton email notifications to keep informed of updates and upcoming meetings, visit www.stocktonca.gov/ShapeStockton. Community members are encouraged to contact the City of Stockton with questions or to provide suggestions and ideas. Please email ShapeStockton@Stocktonca.gov or call (209) 937-7220.
